Helping Rogue

Rogue walked down the stairs finding Kitty watching a film with Jean. she continued to walk, she ended up outside finding Amara, Tabitha, Jubilee, Ray, Sam, Roberto, Bobby and Jamie playing mutant ball. Rogue sighed and went back inside. Scott, Evan and Kurt have went out in Scott's car. The professor was with Logan helping him remember his past. Beast was in his lab. Rogue continued walking and then bumped into storm.

"sorry, I should have been looking where I was walking" rogue said sounding different than usual.

"Its ok, what's wrong" storm asked calmly.

"nothing" rogue lied.

Rogue continued to walk. storm had a worried look on her face knowing there was something wrong.

_'Professor, I think there is something wrong with rogue' S_torm asked professor telepathically.

_'Rogue has went to her room, get her to tell you, but only if she want to talk about it' _the professor replied.

Storm agreed and went to rogues room. knock knock storm knocked on the door. no answer. knock knock storm knocked again. rogue answered the door.

"can I help you?" rogue asked.

"I came to see if you are alright. i'm here to help" storm answered.

Rogue let storm in. The 2 of them sat on rogues comfy bed.

"Well, I just get lots of thoughts in my head but they aren't my thoughts, They are everyone's that I've ever touched before and it's getting a bit crowded" rogue said.

"Lets see if the professor can help, after we could go outside and do something nice, would you like that" storm replied.

"that sounds nice" rogue said happily.

"Then lets go"

Storm and rogue went to the professor.
